

Cleveland Clinic Quarterly

Published by

The Medical Staff of the Cleveland Clinic
CLEVELAND, OHIO

---

Vol. 1

APRIL, 1932

No. 2

---

CONTENTS

Blood Chemistry and the Gastrointestinal Tract, Russell L. Haden .....	3
Interparietal Hernias, William E. Lower and N. Fred Hicken ....	9
Tumor of the Spinal Cord Associated with Bilateral Tumors, W. James Gardner .....	31
The Ductless Glands as they Appertain to Eye Diseases and to Surgery, Albert D. Ruedemann .....	41
An Analysis of 1347 Cases of Malignant Tumors of the Breast with Special Reference to Management and End-Results, George W. Crile .....	49
The Filament-Nonfilament Count, William V. Mullin and Gordon C. Large .....	59
The Comparative Values of Retrograde and Intravenous Urography, Bernard H. Nichols .....	79
Solitary Cysts of the Kidney, Charles Clair Higgins .....	83
Recent Advances in the Treatment of Peptic Ulcer, John Tucker	99
A Case of Thallium Poisoning Following the Prolonged Use of a Depilatory Cream, Wallace S. Duncan and Edward H. Crosby	113
Toxic Hepatitis Due to Cinchophen. A Report of Three Cases, Gordon A. Winfield .....	119