CORRECTION

Parkinson-plus syndromes

(January 2005

A typographic error appeared in the article "A 46-year-old woman with rigidity and frequent falls" by Drs. Babak Tousi, Stephan Schuele, and Thyagarajan

Subramanian in the January 2005 issue (Cleve Clin J Med 2005; 72:57–63). On page 58, first column, sixth paragraph in the section "Hypokinetic syndromes," the first sentence should read "Our patient's motor examination shows features of a hypokinetic syndrome" (not hyperkinetic, as printed).
