FROM THE EDITOR.....

A defense of apple pie 398

Vaccination against pneumococcal pneumonia is widely accepted, although we underuse it, and data to support its efficacy are scarce.

B. F. MANDELL

REVIEW.....

Pneumococcal vaccination in adults: Recommendations, trends, and prospects 401

Current vaccines against Streptococcus pneumoniae may not be ideal, but they are worth giving to elderly patients and others at risk.

P. V. TARGONSKI AND G. A. POLAND

IMAGING IN PRACTICE.....

Radiologic diagnosis and management of acute lower gastrointestinal bleeding 417

When colonoscopy gives indeterminate results or cannot be performed, either radionuclide imaging or angiography is indicated.

S. A. PADIA, B. BYBEL, AND J. S. NEWMAN

REVIEW.....

Heart failure in women is different than in men; should treatment be different? 423

Studies of heart failure treatment have included mostly men, and the results have been generalized to women even though there are pharmacologic and pathophysiologic differences between the sexes.

U. MEZU, C. BOTT-SILVERMAN, AND E. HSICH

EDITORIAL.....

Perhaps it is time for a change in policy on lung cancer screening 438

It is time to think seriously about using computed tomography as a screening test for lung cancer. We should include members of society beyond the scientific community in making this decision.

D. F. YANKELEVITZ

INTERPRETING KEY TRIALS

Lung cancer screening: Is it time for a change in policy? 441

Whether screening with computed tomography should be adopted remains open to debate, despite two large studies that were recently reported.

P. MAZZONE, N. OBUCHOWSKI, T. MEKHAIL, M. MEZIANE, AND M. AHMAD

REVIEW

A different approach to resistant hypertension 449

More patients with resistant hypertension could control their blood pressure if physicians would perform a physical examination to determine the hemodynamic mechanism driving the hypertension. More patients would receive diuretics and beta-blockers, and in higher doses.

S. HIRSCH

IM BOARD REVIEW

A 58-year-old woman with mental status changes 457

Thirty years ago she underwent gastric bypass surgery for obesity. Now she presents with mental status changes, a bicarbonate level of 16 mmol/L, and an anion gap of 15. What is the most likely cause of her acidosis?
