1-MINUTE CONSULT

Do patients with sepsis benefit from intravenous albumin? 405

Patients with sepsis who do not need vasopressors do not benefit from intravenous albumin compared with intravenous crystalloid therapy alone.

Ryan Dunn, MD; Kealy Ham, MD; Lisa Marks, MLS, AHIP; Neera Agrwal, MD, PhD

1-MINUTE CONSULT

Does my patient with acute variceal hemorrhage need a transjugular intrahepatic portosystemic shunt? 409

Placement of a transjugular intrahepatic portosystemic shunt can be used as salvage therapy to control bleeding when endoscopic management fails and as a means of secondary prophylaxis in select patients.
