INDEX

Addison's disease, treatment with desoxycorticosterone	105	Hypertension, essential. Two year results of treatment of	49
Allergic patient, investigation and prolonged care of	89	by celiac ganglionectomy	49
Amblyopia, toxic	241	Hypothyroidism, clinical aspects of	53
Androgens in blood and urine	95	Hypothyroidism, testicular deficiency due to	45
Androgens, testicular deficiency due to hypothyroidism	45	Infection, obstructive lesions and, in the urinary tract	217
Anemia, liver and iron in treatment of	173	Interstitial cystitis	307
Arrhythmia	12	Interstitial cystitis, bilateral simultaneous ureterosigmoid-
Arthritis of the cervical spine, headache caused by	261	ostomy for	181
Auricular fibrillation	13	Intrathoracic goiter	313
Auricular flutter	14	Iodine determination	102
Auricular paroxysmal tachycardia	15	Iron, use of in treatment of anemia	173
Auriculoventricular block	16	Irradiation in treatment of cancer of the breast	109
Beside recognition of the disturbances of cardiac rhythm	12	Jaundice, obstructive	116
Benign and malignant tumors, program of course in	75, 165	Jaundiced patient, preoperative considerations of the	275
Brain lesions, value of perimetry in	298	Jaws, peripheral tumors of	207
Breast, cancer of, irradiation in	109	Kidney, decapsulation of in the course of celiac gangli-
Breast, clinical significance of a lump in	231	onectomy for essential hypertension	260
Bronchiectasis, bronchoscopy in diagnosis and treatment of	140	Kidney pelvis, tumors of	153
Bronchoscopy in diagnosis and treatment of bronchiectasis	140	Kidney stones, recurrent	18
Burger's disease	127	Kidney, Wilms' tumor (adenomyosarcoma) of, in chil-
Bunt's Institute	3, 75, 83, 163, 171, 251, 323	dren; report of a case	265
Cancer of the breast, irradiation in	109	Laboratory methods in clinical endocrinology	95
Cardiac rhythm, bedside recognition of disturbances of	12	Liver failure in obstructive jaundice	121
Carcinoma of pancreas and bile ducts	123	Liver, use of in treatment of anemia	173
Celiac ganglionectomy. Two year results of treatment		Multiple hemorrhagic telangiectasis with special reference of essential hypertension by	49	to gastroscopic appearance	226
Cervical spine, arthritis of, headache caused by	261	Myxedema	53
Cholangitis in obstructive jaundice	122	Nonprotein nitrogen, the clinical significance of an in-
Cholechooduodenostomy	85	creased content of in the blood	283
Cholecystography, indications for duodenal drainage in rela-		Obstructive jaundice, recent advances in treatment of	116
tion to	185	Obstructive lesions and infection in the urinary tract	217
Clinical aspects of hypothyroidism	53	Perimetry, value of in brain lesions	298
Clinical significance of an increased nonprotein nitrogen		Peripheral tumors of the jaws	207
content of the blood	283	Peripheral vascular diseases, differential diagnosis of	127
Clinical significance of a lump in the breast	231	Pityriasis rosea	29
Coronary artery disease, treatment of	253	Premature beats	12
Cretinism	55	Preoperative considerations of the jaundiced patient	275
Cystitis, bilateral simultaneous ureterosigmoidostomy for		Raynaud's disease	127
chronic interstitial	181	Recurrent renal lithiasis	18
Cystitis, interstitial	307	Regional ileitis, importance of roentgen examination in Decapsulation of the kidney in the course of celiac gangli-		diagnosis of	146
onectomy for essential hypertension	260	Renal pelvis, tumors of	153
Desoxycorticosterone, treatment of Addison's disease with	105	Renal lithiasis, recurrent	18
Diagnosis of foreign bodies in the lower air passages	279	Rhabdomyosarcoma of the diaphragm	304
Diaphragm, rhabdomyosarcoma of the	304	Roentgen examination in diagnosis of regional ileitis	146
Diagnosis and treatment, program of course in	323	Roentgen therapy and typhoid shock reactions in treatment
Duodenal drainage, indications for in relation to cholecys-		of acute encephalitis	134
tography	185	Semen examinations	100
Encephalitis, acute, treated by roentgen therapy and		Sodium and chloride retention in Addison's disease treated
typhoid shock reactions	134	with desoxycorticosterone	105
Encysted subdural hematoma	201	Spontaneous subdural hematoma	203
Endocrine aspects of hypertension	63	Stomach, gastroscopy, its value and indications	4
Endocrinology, summary of some laboratory methods in	95	Subdural hematoma, encysted	201
Essential hypertension, a definitive cure of early	199	Syndactylism	72
Essential hypertension, two year results in treatment of		Telangiectasis, multiple, hemorrhagic, with special refer-
by celiac ganglionectomy	49	ence to gastroscopic appearance	226
Estrogens in urine	97	Testicular deficiency due to hypothyroidism	45
Fever therapy, artificial, tularemia treated with; report		Thrombo-angitis obliterans	127
of a case	295	Toxic amblyopia	241
Foreign bodies, the diagnosis of, in the lower air passages	279	Treatment, general diagnosis and, program of course in	323
Frank E. Bunt's Institute	3, 75, 83, 163, 171, 251, 323	Tularemia, treated with artificial fever therapy; report
Friedman test	98	of a case	295
Gastroscopic appearance, multiple hemorrhagic telangiec-		Tumors, benign and malignant, program of course in	75, 163
tasis with special reference to	226	Tumors, peripheral of jaws	207
Gastroscopy, its value and indications	4	Tumors of renal pelvis	153
Goiter, intrathoracic	313	Typhoid shock reactions and roentgen therapy in treat-
Gonadotropic hormone	99	ment of acute encephalitis	134
Headache caused by arthritis of the cervical spine	261	Ureterosigmoidostomy, bilateral simultaneous for chronic
Heart, bedside disturbances of cardiac rhythm	12	interstitial cystitis	181
Hematoma, encysted subdural	201	Urinary tract, obstructive lesions and infection in	217
Hepaticoduodenostomy	85	Vaginal smears	101
Hypertension, definitive cure of early essential	199	Ventricular paroxysmal tachycardia	16
Hypertension, endocrine aspects of	63	Vitamin K in jaundice	119
Hypertension, essential, kidney decapsulation in the course		Webbed fingers, treatment of	72
of celiac ganglionectomy for	260	Wilms' tumor (adenomyosarcoma) of the kidney in children; report of a case	265
